Growing Young Seminar
6 Essential Strategies to Help Young People Love Your Church
Saturday, August 18, 2018 FBC Mocksville 9:00 am

"Our heart's cry is for teenagers and young adults across the country to follow Jesus toward a transformative faith that enriches all generations in their congregations and communities. The Growing Young project began with the question of why certain churches succeed in their ministry with young people. From our research, we discovered that these "bright spot" congregations—diverse in region, size, denomination and culture—have six core commitments in common." Fuller Youth Institute found that churches that are growing young are intentional in their focus on the young people."

The seminar will be conducted by Dr. Andy Jung, Senior Pastor at FBC Albemarle. It is a great opportunity for all of our adults to hear Dr. Jung speak about opportunities for our church family. Please contact Michael Furr before August 11 to sign up.

For Kids Only

Now that school is out, you can't get books from the school library, so why not visit the church library. We have a large selection of children's books, with even an easy reader section on the last three shelves of the children's section. While you are looking for a book, Mom might find something that she would like in the Christian Fiction section just to the left of the entrance. There are books by the popular author, Karen Kingsbury, and many from the series, Tales From Grace Chapel Inn.
